Notes	Many rituals and traditions have grown up amongst the various Factions of Tehmor during the long history of the City. Lawful Factions in particular believe in honouring established rituals. Chaotic Factions are prone to inventing new ones or celebrating the abandonment of old ones (any excuse for a party!). Some rituals are celebrated privately, whilst others are celebrated in public. Guests from other Factions may be invited to participate or join in the celebrations. Rival Factions which have not been invited may seek to disrupt proceedings.
